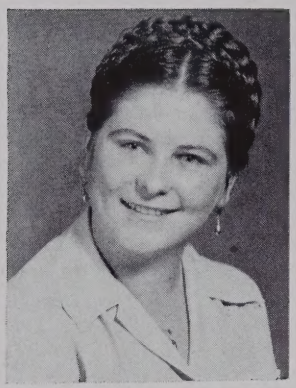
Dedication



Elsa Sulzberger

The Class of 1951 has had the honor and rare privilege of having as one of its classmates, Elsa Sulzberger, a student from Germany. Members of the Class feel that their association with Elsa has given them a better understanding of the value of Christian world brotherhood. Elsa in all of her association with the class, school, and community has proved herself a splendid ambassador of good will from her native land. To this admirable person, the Class respectfully dedicates the Rosebud for 1951.

Theme

In the central part of the United States lies the state of Indiana, one of the forty-eight states which was most favored by Mother Nature, in forests, fertile land, lakes, streams, caves, hills and beautiful scenery. Its climate is usually healthful and invigorating as is well demonstrated by the progress and prosperity of its people.

The northern part of the state has been in the path of travel from east to west even before the coming of the white man. At present we point out railroads such as the Pennsylvania and the New York Central. Today much travel passes over our state highways. Highway 27 extends north and south from the Soo to the Gulf of Mexico, south of Tallahassee, Florida, and No. 6 reaches east and west from Providence Town, Rhode Island to San Francisco. They are two of the important highways of the country and do much to connect the north and the south, and the east and the west together. Since highways 6 and 27 cross as Waterloo, Indiana, it makes this town a crossroads of the nation.

It is located in the midst of a good farming section, which greatly adds to the prosperity of this community. It is also near the lakes of northern Indiana, where people can find enjoyment in fishing, boating, and swimming. Even though it is a small town, people who see Waterloo, always remember it, and many others who have never visited here know of it. Indeed, a crossroads of the nation is a fine place in which to live.

Annual Staff

We, the Senior Class of 1951, have been very busy with our regular work and various other related school activities. In November we gave the Senior Class Play. We Seniors were well represented in basketball, band, twirling, chorus, the Christmas pageant, and the five active clubs.

We also assumed the responsibility of putting out the yearbook, which gives an illustrated history of the public school and which, we believe, improves the relationship between the school and the community.

The Class of 1951 greatly appreciates the help of the businessmen, merchants, and friends of Waterloo, Auburn, Corunna, and the surrounding towns, who gave donations, supported the class play, gave waste paper, and in other ways helped to make it possible to print another volume of the Rosebud. We hope you enjoy it.

Last Will and Testament

ARTICLE I

We, the class of 1951, being of unsound mind and failing health, do hereby publish and declare this document to be our last will and testament. We, hereby will our treasured memories and worthwhile abilities to the forthcoming Seniors, whom we know will cherish them as we have done.

SECTION I

To Mr. Overmeyer, we give our most sincere apologies for all the worries and trouble we have caused him. We deeply appreciate his understanding way in which he has guided us through our school years.

To the Juniors, we dedicate our desks which we have occupied this last year. He hope that they will leave them in as good condition as we have done.

To the Sophomores, we bequeath our text books, which have all the answers written in them. Here's hoping they are right.

To the Freshman, we leave our ability to whisper and pass notes in class. We wish you the best of luck in not getting caught.

SECTION II

To each and every student that is to graduate after us, we leave the following donations, hoping that they take our contributions and use them to better themselves in the years to come.

ARTICLE II

SECTION I

Individually we bequeath the following:

I, Max Lowe, do hereby will my "Height" to Allan LaRowe.

Senior Class Play

"THE FUNNY BRATS."

Dick and Harriet, high school youngsters, are infuriated because their widowed mother, Mrs. Sylvia Gresham, has allowed their older brother, Tom, to become the dictator of the family. They secretly send Tom's picture to a wealthy widow, Mrs. Gwynett Gadwood, whose advertisement for a husband has appeared in a matrimonial paper. Dick and Harriet hope Mrs. Gadwood will marry Tom and take him far, far away, so they can have some freedom and run their mother to suit themselves. Sylvia, tired of her children's constant bickering, decides they need a father. Since Loren Gresham, her bachelor brother-in-law, with whom she is in love, is too bashful to propose, she becomes engaged to the crabbed old widower, Whaley McWhorter, who believes in training children as he trains mules. Dick and Harriet, decide to get rid of him by fair means or foul. They lead him to believe their mother has intentionally poisoned him after she got a huge diamond ring out of him. Mrs. Gadwood arrives from the matrimonial agency in search of Tom. Dick and Harriet, fearing Tom's fury, try to get rid of Mrs. Gadwood by telling her Tom is engaged to the dumb maid, Aurora Pike. "Boogerface Boggs," an amateur wrestler, who is Aurora's boy friend, threatens to murder Tom. The youngsters tell Boggs that Whaley is Tom; he promptly jumps on Whaley and twists him all out of shape! Dick and Harriet finally get their bashful uncle to propose to Sylvia, thinking if he becomes their stepfather he will allow them to do exactly as they please. But Loren makes them understand that they are to be very strictly disciplined. The brats lose their battle after all.

Senior Class History

In September of 1939, twenty-three brave little pupils entered the first grade with Miss Getts as their teacher. The following years we were under the direction of Miss Wisner. We had Miss Hamman for a teacher in the third grade, Miss Dirrim in the fourth, Mr. Shore in the fifth, and Mr. Gurtner in the sixth grade.

Then we moved up stairs where Mr. Shore and Mr. McIntosh prepared us for those four exciting years of high school to which we were looking forward with eagerness.

We started out as green Freshmen, with enthusiasm and eagerness to become acquainted with the many new faces about us. We were under the supervision of Mr. Leslie the first year in high school. We had several parties, much to our satisfaction.

During our Sophomore year we purchased our class sweaters. "Oh! Look at that Green," was the cry through the hall. As a money-making project we sold Christmas cards and wrapping paper, with Miss Thompson and Mr. Eppley as our sponsors.

During the next year we were very busy Juniors. We purchased our class rings and considered this one of the high lights of the year. Under the supervision of Jack Shore we operated the Concession Stand, the proceeds of which were to go into our fund for our Senior Class trip. In the Spring, with Mrs. Voss as our director, we presented the play, "Pair of Country Kids." It was well attended and enjoyed by the audience.

In September, 1951, we entered school with an important air of dignity; for at last we were Seniors! This year our biggest job was to edit the yearbook, "The Rosebud," and prepare for our trip. In order to do this we conducted many paper drives and bake sales, from which we received a good profit.

We are grateful students, and we wish to thank our teachers and parents who have given us this opportunity to receive our education.

Compliments of F. A. Adler, Insurance and Real Estate, Waterloo

Class Poem

There never has been a similar class
To leave dear W. H. S.
But for better, or worse, or intelligence
Charlie will not confess.

We've tried quite hard to do our best
And here on this page you will see.
A little about each class mate
Written as poetry.

Phyllis came to school this year
Every single day.
It would take a lot of snow and ice
To keep this girl away.

Dick Kummer seems always happy
And is president of the class.
Whenever he isn't busy
He calls on a blonde-headed lass.

Carol Bunge is an artist.
Painting is surely her fate.
Whenever Tom is close at hand
She is always sure of a date.

Tommie sits in study hall
With a deceiving look.
For underneath his lessons
You will find a funny book.

Jannis Becker dresses neat
And studies her lessons each day.
She wants to be a beautician
So I've heard a few people say.

Dick Hissong can play basketball
Or pitch a curving ball.
But says he doesn't care for school
Because it is too dull.

Nannette plays a saxaphone
And wants to go to college.
To study Home Economics
And increase her cooking knowledge.

Lowneta lives out in the country
She rides to school on the bus.
She will help anyone who asks her
And do it without any fuss.

Barbara likes to cook and sew
And work around the house.
She doesn't have too much to say
And is as quiet as a mouse.

Stanley likes speech and government
And says he wouldn't mind more.
But when he goes to bookkeeping
Two and two just won't make four.

Dorothy likes to drive the car,
She came to town one night.
But big Bill stopped her on the spot
For she had no tail light.

Fay Ann is good in shorthand
And is an ambitious lass.
In almost all her studies
She is at the head of the class.

Jim Tuttle and Donnie
Are basketball stars.
You can usually find them
Out driving their cars.

Arlene can sing a solo
Almost like Margaret T.
And when anyone asks for help
Her answer is always "me."

Ross doesn't care for fancy things
Or anything too up to snuff.
But when it comes to basketball
He can't seem to get quite enough.

Lucille takes Home Economics
And is learning to bake, sew, and cook.
But says she can't do anything
Without the recipe book.

Mary Lee and Janice
Have always been good pals.
And I'm sure you'll agree
They are both fine gals.

Dick Squier lives at Corunna
He never has much to say.
But has a good time in the classroom
If the teacher is away.

Loretta's future is plain to see
She'll be a huckster's wife.
Lyle will live in the country
And lead a farmer's life.

Elsa comes from Germany
Far across the sea.
She is a friend of one and all
I'm sure you will agree.

Sometimes in afternoon study halls
Max's head gets a little tap.
Because instead of studying
He is taking a nap.

Now me, I'm only a Senior
Without any talents or fame.
But just so you know who wrote this
I'll take time to sign my name.

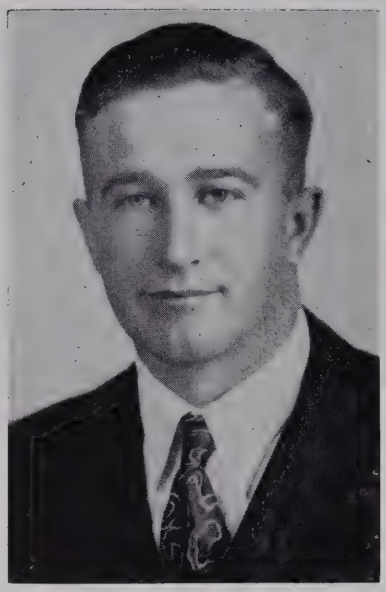
School Board

Glen Hubartt, Sr.



Donald Myers

Fern A. Morr

Glen Hubartt, Sr., was elected trustee of Grant Township last November. He took office January 1, 1951. In addition to his duties as trustee he operates a garage in Waterloo. Mr. Hubartt is secretary of the School Board.

This is the third year that Donald Myers has served on the School Board of the Waterloo-Grant Township School representing Grant Township. Mr. Myers is president of the Board.

The Treasurer of the School Board is Fern A. Morr. This makes two years that Mr. Morr has represented the town of Waterloo on the Board. He does auctioneering, and is also an insurance agent and deals in real estate.

Office Staff

The office staff was entirely new this year. However, the girls have done remarkably well in learning to carry out their various tasks with accuracy and efficiency. They took care of many details in the office such as checking attendance, keeping records, taking dictation, writing letters, and taking care of anything else that was deemed necessary.

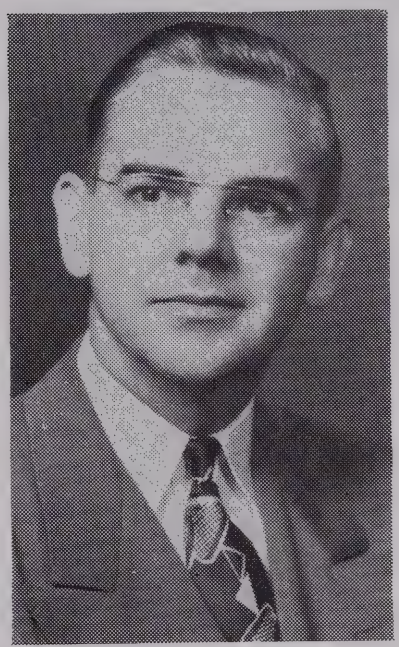
Administration



Charles A. Overmeyer

In addition to his administrative duties as superintendent of our school, Mr. Overmeyer taught courses in government and biology. American government is offered as a senior year subject. This is a required class. In this course an intensive study is made of the government of the United States and how it functions. In addition the course includes a study of the state and local government organization and functions. The principles of economics are a part of this course also.

Biology is a study of living things,—plants and animals. Analyses of the physiology and function of various life are made. A considerable amount of time is given to laboratory work. Emphasis is also placed on health and human physiology.

Clarence L. Bowers

Mr. Bowers, the principal of the school, taught courses in civics and shorthand. Community and vocational civics is offered as a freshman subject. In this course the students are taught community management and civic duties and responsibilities. Vocational information is presented which is helpful in preparing the student to select an occupation.

Two years of shorthand are offered. Emphasis during the first year is directed toward learning the symbols and fluency in reading. In the second year, speed in taking and transcribing shorthand is the objective. The Gregg method is used.

Faculty

Claud Leslie

MR. LESLIE taught English 9 and 10 and psychology. The first semester of English is devoted to the study of grammar. In these courses the attention of the student is directed toward the mastery of sentence structure, parts of speech, punctuation, and other mechanical aspects of English. The second semester is devoted to the study of literature. Original composition is emphasized. This subject has as its aim the development of an appreciation for good reading. Extensive reading of library books in both semesters is encouraged.

In psychology human behavior patterns are studied in an attempt to gain an understanding of those with whom we associate and of ourselves. Case studies and statistical trends are observed.

Margaret Reed

MRS. REED instructed bookkeeping, typing, physical education, and health. Bookkeeping is offered in the senior year. Emphasis is placed upon learning to use the principles of bookkeeping as it applies to business and personal accounts. The student learns many business terms and practices, how to establish a set of books, and simple accounting methods. In the second semester a practice set using real business papers is completed.

Typing is offered for both juniors and seniors. In the first semester the objective is placed upon the mastery of the keyboard and the development of speed. In the second semester emphasis is placed upon speed and the practice of typing letters, business forms, legal documents, etc.

Freshman and sophomore girls are enrolled in physical education and health. Softball, hiking, volleyring, volleyball, folk dancing, and basketball were taught. In health special emphasis was directed to mental and emotional problems as well as to the physical functions of the body.

Faculty

Harold Long

MR. LONG was the instructor of English 11, history 11, and speech. American history is offered as a junior year subject. In this course the student studies the development of the United States from the time of discovery to the present. This course is required of every student.

English 11 follows the same pattern as the preceding English courses with more advanced work being given.

Speech is offered as an elective to junior and senior students. Students are given an opportunity to develop speech talent and self-confidence in expressing themselves. Students are taught to make short speeches, organize material for orations, act in plays, and debate.

The band was directed by Mr. Long also.

Marcelle Voss

MRS. VOSS directed the vocal music for the high school and taught the Latin classes. The chorus, girls' trio, and octette appeared on a number of programs in the community. The enjoyment of singing various types of music as well as an appreciation of good music are objectives in the department.

Latin is designed to acquaint the student with a history of the English language. By learning Latin, the student is able to increase his English vocabulary by determining the Latin basic word from which our English words are formed. Roman customs and culture are also studied in the Latin class.

Second year Latin is a continuation of the first-year course in advanced sentence structure, vocabulary study, and grammar. The second semester is a study of Caesar's Gallic Wars and a comparison and contrast of his methods of war with modern methods. This class prepares and serves a Latin banquet following Roman customs.

Gale Brown

MISS BROWN was the home economics teacher this year; she also taught biology. In freshman home economics, most of the first semester was spent dealing with food preparation, meal serving, and food values. Personal grooming, social rules, and self improvement were studied during a few weeks of the first and second semesters. The second semester is devoted to art problems and clothing. Each girl analyzes herself according to the colors and types of clothing she should wear. In the last few weeks simple dresses, blouses, or other articles are made during class time.

In the second year of home economics, the entire first semester is spent studying food, how to preserve and purchase it, how to prepare meals, and how to serve meals. A number of dinners were served to guests. How to care for the baby and small child and how to care for the sick in the home are the bases for study in the last half of the year. Girls learn how to make a bed properly, how to change linens with the patient in bed, etc.

In advanced home economics for the junior and senior students, the girls learn more advanced food-preparation techniques and interior decorating during the first semester. The last half of the year is given over to more difficult clothing problems than have previously been encountered and family relationships.

Miss Brown graduated from Ball State Teachers College a year ago.

Clarence Buesking

MR. BUESKING instructed algebra, general mathematics, geometry, chemistry, and general science. In algebra a study of formulas is made and in uses of letters in solving problems when the numbers are not yet known. Ways are found for working problems which cannot be solved by arithmetic.

A review of the 7th and 8th grade arithmetic is the beginning of general mathematics. Further arithmetic as used in business and other occupations is also taught. Considerable time is given to problems in finance, insurance, etc.

Geometry is a study of triangles, circles, and other figures and drawings with the laws of shape, size and other relations. It is useful in all other mathematics work.

Chemistry delves into the composition of compounds and their reactions to each other. Experiments were conducted frequently.

Mr. Buesking was graduated from Ball State Teachers College. He taught in the Burris High School in Muncie. Last year he did graduate work at Purdue University.

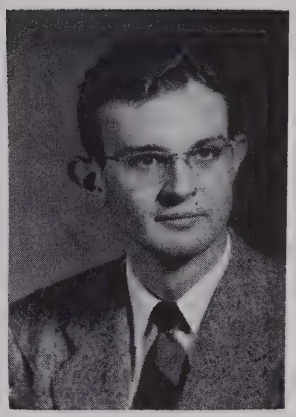
MR. RIGGIN taught the vocational agriculture courses, a course in mechanical drawing, and 7th and 8th grade shop. The agricultural courses are integrated, with the freshman and sophomore classes studying various crop and livestock enterprises, and the junior and senior classes studying farm management and farm marketing problems. A farming practice program is required as part of the courses. Emphasis throughout the four-year course is on greater proficiency in the production of crops and livestock, conservation of our resources, increasing the efficiency of the farm operations, and buying and selling farm commodities more advantageously.

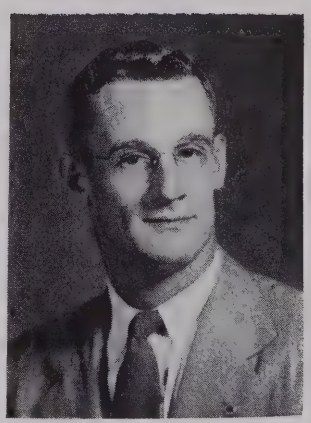


Max Riggin

Mr. Riggin is a graduate of the School of Agriculture of Purdue University.

MR. DOVE taught general business, driver training, health, and physical education. General business is the first subject offered in the business course. In this course emphasis is placed on planning for buying, the use of the budget for buying, the proper use of credit, the obtaining of small loans, and buying on the installment plan. Furthermore, the subject covers insurance, social security laws, and business arithmetic.

Physical education and health are required of all freshmen and sophomore students. Team sports are taught in physical education with emphasis on sportsmanship and team spirit. In health a study of the body structure is made.



Robert Dove

He also coached the basketball team.

Mr. Dove is a graduate of the Butler High School. He served in the army during the last war. Mr. Dove graduated from Indiana University last spring.

Churches

Our city of Waterloo is blessed with the five churches pictured above. They are of great assistance in helping us to strike a balance in the equilibrium of our education. They provide the spiritual teaching necessary for our character-building program. Without this guidance we could not find favor with God nor peace with our fellow men.

The First Evangelical United Brethren (lower left) is the oldest church organization, being organized in 1852.

The Methodist church (center right) was organized about 1884, and the first church was built in 1885.

The Saint Paul Evangelical United Brethren (upper left) was organized before the Civil War. The first church was constructed in 1869. The Evangelical Church of Waterloo remained under that title until their denomination merged with the United Brethren in Christ in 1946. This church then changed to the present title.

The Nazarene Church (upper right) was organized in 1945 and the Church of Christ in the year 1947.

The spirit of cooperation between these churches and our school shall always be an inspiration to us and to the coming generation.

We entered school this year under the guidance of Mr. Clarence Buesking.

We had a hayride party in October. We started at the school house and went up Old Six to the home of Marcella Girardot. The night was cold, but we didn't mind. When we arrived at Marcella's the German girl, Elsa, played her accordion; then we roasted weiners and came back to the school house at an early hour.

Six of the boys participated in sports. Wayne Shuman served as student manager of the basketball team and Delbert Zerkle was a yell leader.

The Junior class had the opportunity to operate the concession stand this school year, in order to raise money for the annual we are planning to put out next year and to help finance an educational trip we hope to take at the end of our senior year.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

When the school year of 1950-1951 opened, thirty-nine students entered the Waterloo Sophomore class. Willa Fulwider was our only new member. At the present, however, our membership is only thirty-seven. Donna Diederick moved to Garrett. Dale Ackerman withdrew when he had the misfortune of becoming ill with poliomyelitis in the fore-part of the year.

The class gave Dale a birthday party at the home of Karen Bisel on November 24th. The class and visitors enjoyed a hayride in October at the home of Doris Leins. We had another party March 15th in the basement of the Waterloo Library.

To increase the funds of our treasury, we sold Christmas cards; Bessie Mergy sold the highest number of boxes.

Our blue and white class sweaters arrived in January.

Many members of our class are also members of other school organizations. Eighteen are members of band, eleven are in chorus, and nearly all members are in some club.

FRESHMAN HISTORY

The Class of "54" is beginning its long journey in search of knowledge.

Mrs. Thomson and Miss Kelly helped us through the first and second grades. During our third and fourth grades, Miss Hammon and Miss Dirrim guided us very well. Mrs. Kuehn and Mr. Gurtner helped us into Junior High; there our teachers were Mr. Shore and Mr. McIntosh.

On September 5, forty-seven were enrolled in the Freshman class. Ten came from Richland and six from Fairfield township. On March 5, Don St. John came from Butler and joined our class.

The class will never forget the hayride that took place in October. After the square dance, refreshments were served around a bonfire at Janet Farrell's home. Our chaperon was Mr. Leslie.

In December we had a Christmas party which was held at Ronald Feller's home. Our chaperons were Mr. Dove and Mr. Riggins. We had lots of fun playing games and dancing.

Twelve of the freshmen took part in band and twelve participated in chorus.

The institution which is now Waterloo-Grant Township School had its beginning in a two-story brick building on the north side of the railroad in the present school park. Later it used the Town Hall for classrooms and a gymnasium.

Many years have passed; the town of Waterloo and Grant township have consolidated. The old building has disappeared and a modern structure with a gymnasium attached has been erected in the southeast part of town. Crude desks, equipment and teaching methods have given way to more modern pedagogy. Today busses bring the students in from the township and the neighboring town of Corunna.

The Christmas Pageant

The Waterloo School presented the nativity scenes along with appropriate Christmas music. The presentation was given by popular request. This year, however, two new scenes were added along with several new musical numbers. As in the previous year the music department carried a large part of the work. Mrs. Voss used special group singing for most of the vocal work with the chorus for background effects. The band under the direction of Mr. Long, performed ably in the overture and throughout the instrumental parts of the presentation.

This year our Y-Teens Club has tried to make itself a more Christian-like organization, united in the common purpose of working together in Christian fellowship.

The first event of the year was our initiation of new members. This was a beautiful candle-light service held in the gymnasium. As another project we joined the Hi-Y to go Christmas caroling, after which our Y-Teen mothers served refreshments.

Among the Y-Teen members, we exchanged names for secret pals, and at several of the meetings we had a special speaker. Our speakers have included Mr. Leslie, Mr. Overmeyer, Rev. Brandyberry, and Rev. Dale Stackhouse of the Forest Park Methodist Church, Fort Wayne, Indiana. Another project undertaken by the club was the selling of United States Savings stamps to the students in the school.

With the help of our sponsors, Mrs. Reed, Miss Brown, and Mrs. Voss, we have had a very active club this year.

The following officers served for this year:

The Caesar Latin Club

Having an enrollment increased to twenty-eight, the Caesar Latin Club renewed its meetings with an initiation for new members held on November 9th. This, of course, was an inducement to prospective members.

The monthly meetings, for the purpose of learning more about Roman culture, were planned by a Program Committee so that at each meeting a talk or drama was presented by some member to illustrate some Roman custom.

Theoretically these have provided a good background for the main event of the year, the Roman Banquet, planned by the second year Latin class under the guiding hand of Mrs. Voss.

The officers chosen for the year were:

Everyone enjoyed the initiation at his expense.

Future Homemakers of America

Any girl in high school who has had one semester of home economics may become a member of FHA. We hope that FHA has helped foster in the minds of our members an appreciation for democratic ideals, standards for family life, and a concern for community and international welfare. We hope that in our small way we have helped promote international good will. In November we sent money to buy a Christmas package for an European girl. We hope you tasted the caramels we made and sold at Christmas time; we hope to have more next year. Our community project consisted of filling a box with groceries for a family who have had misfortune. For a school project we made available some vocational guidance and beauty tips to senior girls and our own members by inviting Ravens-Croft Beauty School to present a program for an evening meeting. We appreciated hearing about family life in Germany from Elsa Sulzberger. The public was invited to see accomplishments of home economics classes at the style show sponsored by FHA. We received a gold seal for meeting state requirements.

The Waterloo-Grant Chapter of the Future Farmers of America began its program of activities early in the fall with a corn-field gleaning project which proved very satisfactory. Early in January seven Greenhands were initiated into the Chapter. On January 18, the Chapter sponsored a personal appearance of the Hoosier Cornhuskers from radio station WKJG in Fort Wayne.

A pest contest was held with a total of 113,205 points being collected. The winning team, whose captain was Lyle Vian was treated to a supper by the losing team which was led by Jim Tuttle.

A basketball team, organized in January, was victorious over the Garrett chapter team on two occasions and the Butler chapter team once. Butler won one game for the only defeat.

On February 1, a garden and flower seed sales contest was begun with Stanley Bonecutter and Larry DeWitt as captains of the two teams.

The chapter was represented by teams in the County Livestock and dairy judging contests which were held in April. Roscoe Wiggins and Tommy Simons represented the Chapter in the state F. F. A. convention held at Purdue University. The chapter concluded a successful school year with a pot-luck supper on April 26.

The Chorus has a membership of forty-two this year. We have appeared in our robes for several programs.

We have improved the quality by taking private vocal lessons for credit. Fourteen choral students have taken advantage of the credit system.

We meet on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday for group rehearsal and on Tuesday and Thursday for sectional rehearsal.

Karen Bisel is our very able and faithful accompanist.

We will lose ten members this spring in the Senior Class. They will be greatly missed.

High School Ensemble

Twenty singers were selected from the Choral group for a new organization called the High School Ensemble.

We prepared a group of religious numbers for church programs and have appeared in many churches throughout the county on Sunday mornings. The reception in these churches has been most complimentary and encouraging.

Thirteen of the group entered vocal solos and small ensembles in the contest at Ft. Wayne. The quality of music was very good, because we received one Superior rating, nine Excellent ratings, and three Good ratings.

Six of our members will graduate, creating vacancies which will be difficult to fill.

Band

This page sponsored by C. O. Speer & Son

Mr. Long's band this year tooted fifty-eight strong. The organization met every day in the week and a few ambitious members practiced at noon, the fifth and sixth periods, and even in some odd cases, at home.

In the shuffle that occurs every year as a result of graduation the saxaphone section will lose most heavily this year. We will lose by graduation Virginia Bowers, our only Bass Clarinet player; Dorothy Feller, our top rating drum major; Arlene Dunn, Phyllis Weicht, and Nannette Noirot, saxaphones; and Lowneta Stuckey, our first chair French horn player.

The band was fortunate in having the Waterloo Band Parents Club to chaperon, advise, and buy new equipment for our organization. Mrs. Lavern Stuckey, president; Mrs. Ora Zerkle, vice-president; Mrs. Bernard Stuller, secretary and Mrs. Sidney Smith, treasurer, served the club well during the past year.

The Band's Fall activities included the DeKalb County Fair in which the band won first place for Class "A" bands. The band also took an active part in the various political rallies in this area. The highlight of the Fall activities was the State Marching Contest at Warsaw, October 14. After the band had played a fanfare and performed the nine required movements, the organization made a large American Flag, a pinwheel, and a pumpkin using lights on the caps of the band members. The band was awarded first place for class "C" bands. Through the winter season we were chiefly concerned with playing for basketball games. At each game our corp of fine twirlers gave an exhibition of their skill in handling their batons. Our twirlers for this year have been Pat Nodine, Leoma Vian, Helen Shultz, Virginia Bowers, and Emogene Hilkey. Our capable Drum Major who has led our band to several victories this year has been Dorothy Feller. The band assisted at the annual Christmas Pageant at the high school.

The Waterloo Lions Club sent the band by chartered bus to participate in the annual Indiana Day for bands at Bloomington, Indiana. We assisted in helping make the formation for one of the huge letter I's presented on the field at half time in the game between Indiana and Marquette Universities. Several of the parents and townspeople accompanied the band on this trip. One of our band members, who arose too late to go with the group that day, coaxed one of our local citizens to fly him to Bloomington. Freddy Kogin was waiting for us, trombone in hand, when we arrived.

Those taking part in the State Solo and Ensemble Contest at Harrison Hill School in Ft. Wayne, February 17, were Donna V. Wolford, Bill Stuller, Karen Bisel, Lusina Smith, and Myrnalie Ayers, who were all awarded First Division ratings. Lyda Dilgard, Rhoada Rudolph, Janet Bowers, Bessie Mergy, Tom Mohr, Pat Nodine, Judy Steininger, Mary Lou Weirich, the saxaphone quartet, the clarinet quartet, cornet trio, and clarinet duet were given second division ratings. Tom Mohr and Jim Simons were given third division ratings. Those attending the All State Contest at Jordan College of Music, Indianapolis, March 17, were Donna V. Wolford, Karen Bisel and Myrnalie

Ayers who were awarded second division ratings and Bill Stuller who placed in third division. The District Band contest was held at New Haven this year. The selections played were "Music in the Park," "The Traveler," and "Magnus Overtures." The band is looking forward to an interesting summer program and many new members next year.

DRUM MAJORETTE

Dorothy Feller has served the High school well as drum majorette. Her leadership has helped to improve the band.

MAJORETTES

The majorettes were always on hand with their lively step to add pep and enthusiasm to the band. We, also, remember their performances at the basketball games.

More and more, educators have come to recognize the school library as the hub around which the entire curriculum should rotate. In an attempt to meet the various needs and interests of over 400 students, our libraries (grade and high school) now have in excess of 2,100 volumes. The circulation records indicate that in one month 449 books circulated in the high school. Magazines and pamphlets were also used extensively.

This year we were fortunate in having an efficient staff. Their work was varied—carding and shelving books, maintaining circulation records, aiding students in locating books, preparing bulletin boards, and even dusting!

Marcella Girardot and Fay Ann Johnston worked in the grade library. Here they helped the younger children select suitable books. In addition they assisted in the preparation of new and rebound books which includes cataloging, cutting and pasting "blurbs," typing, and twice-shellacking each new book—many were the groans and cutting remarks made by fellow students concerning the odoriferious shellac.

A faculty library committee was selected this year in an effort to choose suitable classroom reference books for the grades. Mr. Leslie, Mr. Shore, Miss Dirrim, and Mrs. Reed served on this committee. As an outgrowth of the recommendations of this group, a large number of dictionaries was purchased for use in the first six grades. Eventually it is hoped to expand our selection of reference books in both the grades and the high school.

Baseball Team

Kneeling: Tommy Simons, Ronnie Feller, Larry Oster, Jack Cobbs, Dorsey Fields.
Standing: Coach Robert Dove, Ed Shippy, Larry DeWitt, Richard Hissong, Robert Hissong, Ned Shippy, Eugene Frick, Assistant Coach Bruce Gurtner.

The familiar call "play ball" came when school got under way. This year the team was coached by Bob Dove. The baseball season was not too successful; the team won two and lost five.

WATERLOO-ASHLEY

Our first game was with Ashley on our diamond. In the first inning, Waterloo didn't score while the Aces managed two hits and got two runs. In the second inning Fields and D. Hissong scored for Waterloo and the Aces didn't score. In the fourth we had two strike outs and one catch out. The Aces got one run. In the fifth neither team scored. Waterloo failed to score in the seventh. The game ended 4-5 for Ashley.

WATERLOO-ALBION

Our second game of the season was with Albion. Both teams failed to score in the first two innings of play. In the third Cobbs, B. Hissong and D. Hissong got three runs and Albion failed to score. Albion got three runs in the fifth and one in the sixth. Then in the seventh Cobbs, B. Hissong and D. Hissong scored the clinchers for the Wildcats. Albion was able to score one run in the seventh, but it was a victory for Waterloo.

WATERLOO-ROME CITY

On September 22, we played Rome City on the home diamond. The Waterloo Wildcats got off to a good start by scoring seven runs in the first inning, while Rome City had a scoreless inning. In the second inning Waterloo was able to get three runners on base but none scored. Rome City drove one run in. During the third Waterloo stacked up two more runs, while Rome City got one run. This marked Waterloo's second victory by a score of 9-3.

WATERLOO-ANGOLA

On September 26 the Waterloo baseball club journeyed to Angola. The Waterloo nine got off to a bad start by not scoring any runs in the first four innings. Angola had been able to mark up four points in this period. The fifth inning Waterloo got rolling and Cobbs, Shippy, and Simons were allowed runs. We allowed Angola one run. The sixth inning saw three more runs for Waterloo. These were by DeWitt, Fields, and Shippy. Angola also drove in three runs. The seventh inning was scoreless and Angola won 9-6.

WATERLOO-BUTLER

On September 27 the Wildcats went to Butler. In this game Butler got off to an early lead by having eight runs in the first two innings. The third inning saw Waterloo's first point, this being scored by DeWitt. The third, fourth and fifth innings Butler was held scoreless, while Dick and Bob Hissong both got runs. In the sixth and seventh Butler marked up four points and Waterloo didn't score. The game ended, Butler 12, Waterloo 3.

WATERLOO-KENDALLVILLE

The Wildcats went to Kendallville on September 29. The first two innings neither team scored. The third showed a different story. Two runs by Fields and Oster gave Waterloo two points but Kendallville was allowed five. The fourth had no scoring while in the fifth DeWitt and B. Hissong got runs and Kendallville was scoreless. The sixth saw three more runs for Kendallville and one for Waterloo by Frick. In the seventh DeWitt got one for Waterloo while Kendallville didn't score. The game ended, Kendallville winning 8-6.

WATERLOO-BUTLER

Our last game of the season was with Butler on October 5. In this game Williams got a run in the third inning and DeWitt got one in the sixth. Butler got two runs in the first inning, one in the second inning, and two in the fifth. Butler won by a score of 7-2.

BASKETBALL

WATERLOO-ST. JOE

Our first game of the season, was November 3, with the St. Joe Tigers. In the first three quarters neither team was able to get a lead. The fourth quarter gave the Waterloo Wildcats their needed three points, and we won our first game of the season, 44-41. Don Korff had high point honors for Waterloo.

WATERLOO-ANGOLA

The second game of the season was with the Angola Hornets on November 10. The Wildcats started out with a bang with a 16-11 lead at the end of the first quarter. The Wildcats slowly lost their lead, and by the end of the third quarter the Hornets were ahead 39-32. Toward the end the Hornets pushed on to even greater heights, winning the game 56-45. Dorsey Fields, a junior, was high point man.

WATERLOO-SPENCERVILLE

Next on the schedule, November 15, was Spencerville. The Spencerville Raiders are coached by the former coach of Waterloo, Don Long. It was a close and exciting game all the way, with Waterloo's one point lead at the third quarter. The Raiders slowly pulled ahead in the fourth quarter to a final score of 60-55. Bob Hissong had high point honors.

WATERLOO-AVILLA

On November 22, the Wildcats went to Avilla after their second victory. The Wildcats enjoyed a comfortable lead all through the game. We won with a final score 55-41. Don Korff was high point man.

WATERLOO-PLEASANT LAKE

During Thanksgiving Vacation the Wildcats went to Pleasant Lake where they defeated the Spartons 61-53. Don Korff was high point man.

WATERLOO-BUTLER

On the first day of December the Butler Windmills came to Waterloo. This proved to be an exciting game with the score changing hands at different times. However, by the end of the third quarter the Wildcats managed to get a 51-45 lead, but the Windmills came back with everything they had. At the gun the score was 62-62. In the overtime the Windmills managed to get five points to Waterloo's three. The final score ending 65-67. Fields was high for Waterloo with 20 points, Bob Hissong following with 19.

WATERLOO-HAMILTON

The Hamilton Marines journeyed to Waterloo on December 8. The Wildcats wasted no time in pounding shots through the hoop, as they were leading 21 to 6 at the end of the first quarter. The Wildcats went on to a 70-30 score before the gun sounded. Fields was high with 12 points.

WATERLOO-LIGONIER

On December 15, the Wildcats went to Ligonier. The Ligonier five jumped to a 20-7 lead by the end of the first eight minutes of playing time. The Wildcats were not able to overcome this lead and the game ended 63-47. Fields was high with 14 points.

WATERLOO-ASHLEY

The Aces came to Waterloo on December 18. The Wildcats and the Aces played on about even terms the first half. In the third quarter the Wildcats started hitting and gained a 46-34 lead by the end of the third quarter. The Aces were not able to come back and the game ended 63-45. Fields was high with 14 points.

WATERLOO-ALBION

During the Christmas vacation the Wildcats went to Albion. It turned out to be a very low scoring contest. The first half ended 13-15. In the third quarter the Wildcats had gained 26-22 lead. In the final period the game was played on about even terms with the final score ending 37-33 in favor of Waterloo. Fields was high with nine points.

WATERLOO-CHURUBUSCO

January 9, Churubusco came to Waterloo. At the end of the first quarter the score was 14-12, Waterloo. By the end of the second quarter we had a three point lead. In the third quarter the Wildcats remained ahead. The Wildcats won 49-39. Korff was high with 15.

WATERLOO-ASHLEY

On January 12 the Aces came back to Waterloo for their second scheduled game of the season. By the end of the first quarter the score was 13-18, Ashley. The Aces continued scoring and the second quarter ended 35-26. In the third quarter the Wildcats came back within six points of the Aces. In the fourth quarter the Wildcats kept coming back and finally with about four minutes to go the Wildcats had drawn within two points of Ashley. Fields and Bob Hissong then fouled out, and the Wildcats lost a considerable amount of their rebounding power. The Aces then started a rally and the game ended 71-58.

WATERLOO-ANGOLA

On January 19 the Wildcats went to Angola. Both teams were evenly matched in the first quarter. The score was 12-13. In the second quarter the Hornets set up a good defense and the Wildcats got only one foul shot while Angola poured in another 12 points. The score at the half way mark was Waterloo 13 and Angola 25. From this time on the Wildcats were never able to get rolling and the game ended 58-43. Korff was high with 8 points.

WATERLOO-GARRETT

On January 22 the Railroaders came to Waterloo. The Wildcats had gained a four point lead by the end of the first quarter. The Wildcats kept fighting hard and the second quarter ended 32-36. The third quarter had the Railroaders coming back into the game. This quarter ended 39-41. In the fourth quarter with about 2 minutes to go, the Railroaders had managed to tie up the game. With two long shots the Railroaders were able to win by a score of 51-55.

WATERLOO-FREMONT

The Waterloo basketball club went to Fremont on January 26. The Fremont Eagles got off to a quick start and got 20 points in the second quarter, while Waterloo Wildcats poked through 15. The third quarter ended 44-28. The Eagles went on to win by a score of 56-39.

WATERLOO-WOLCOTTVILLE

The Wildcats journeyed to Wolcottville on February 2. In this game the Wildcats were up against a zone defense and had to play on a small floor. The Wildcats couldn't hit from out on the floor and couldn't drive through the zone. The bulldogs got a 34-13 lead by the end of the half. The Wildcats were never able to get back into the ball game and the game proved to be a victory for Wolcottville. The final score was 60-44.

WATERLOO-HUNTERTOWN

On February 9 the Huntertown Wildcats came to Waterloo. The tall boys and tight defense work of Huntertown was too much for Waterloo. The Allen County Champs had a 30-11 lead after 16 minutes of play. The Huntertown team continued to enjoy this lead and the game ended 36-56. Korff was high with 9 points.

WATERLOO-BUTLER

Waterloo went to Butler on February 16 for the second game of the season with Butler. In the first half the Wildcats set up a tight zone and it proved successful. The half time score was 31-28. In the third quarter Butler rallied and it ended 39-46, Butler. The Wildcats could not get rolling and the game ended 61-48, Butler. B. Hissong got 17 points to his credit.

WATERLOO-ST. JOE

For the sectional tourney this year we drew the St. Joe Tigers and played at Auburn. In the first quarter the Wildcats and the St. Joe Tigers were evenly matched and the quarter ended 11-10. In the second quarter the Tigers managed a 2 point lead. The third was a 3 point lead for them. In the final quarter the Wildcats got within two points of St. Joe. With about four minutes to go the Tigers rallied and went on to win the ball game 56-48. Bob Hissong had high point honors.

Ned McIntosh

When school opened in September, Ronald Holmes was the only new pupil. There were then twenty-one in the class. Robert Leply, one of our classmates in the seventh grade, had moved to Bryan during the summer.

In October the class was given a party in honor of Jim DeLong's birthday.

The seventh and eighth grade girls tried out for Jr. High cheer leaders in October. Janet Bowers was chosen from the seventh grade. Analee Wiseman and Jane Miller were chosen from the eighth grade.

We exchanged names for a Christmas party in December. Ned appointed committees for entertainment, refreshment, and purchasing the tree. Everyone received nice gifts.

During January Ronald Holmes moved back to St. Joe where he is now attending school.

In February Janet Shady invited the class to her home after a high school basketball game in honor of her birthday. We played games and enjoyed refreshments of ice cream and cake.

We are now looking forward to our work in high school.

In the fall of 1944, thirty-two pupils were enrolled under Mrs. Mildred Thompson. Mrs. Margaret Ann McIntosh and Miss Marguerite Hamman taught the second and third grades. Miss Cleo Dirrim and Mrs. Florabelle Kuehn helped us through the fourth and fifth grades. Mr. Gurtner promoted us to Junior High.

Mr. Shore and Mr. McIntosh were our teachers this year.

This fall twenty-five pupils, one of whom was new, were enrolled. Janice Jacobs came during the school year.

Our social activities for the year included a Christmas and a Valentine Party in our room.

In English, reading, and geography, Mr. McIntosh was our teacher. Mr. Shore taught us arithmetic, history, and spelling. Miss Brown instructed the girls in home economics and Mr. Riggin was the boys shop teacher. A number of us were members of the senior band under the direction of Mr. Long.

The Junior Band occupies a very needy and distinct spot in the instrumental music program of our school as it provides the on coming future Senior Band members. The groups activities are limited in scope due to the fact that as soon as its members reach the seventh grade they are automatically transferred to the Senior Band.

The Junior Band has produced several notable musicians from its group this year. Sharon Smith has taken several outstanding prizes in twirling and is listed in the book "Who's Who For American Twirlers, 1951" an outstanding honor for any twirler. Keith Miser and Wayne Myers were awarded first divisions at the State Solo Contest and Sharon Crooks and Betty Ann Nessel placed second.

Jack Overmeyer, Jerry Ordway, James DeLong, Murvin Tuttle, DeWayne Schlosser, Jerry Boman, Nicki Hoot, Neal Hodges.

The school safety patrol is a vital force in the important work of safeguarding children from the hazards of modern traffic. Our patrol is always organized on the principle that accidents are avoidable. We recognize the fact that our pupils must cross several dangerous intersections as they walk to and from school. School children do not always think in terms of safety when they are trying to get to their destination with the least possible interference. Therefore, in order to make these intersections as safe as possible, these patrol boys are at their respective corners every day regardless of the weather. Their work is not only valuable to the boys and girls they help, but it also gives them actual experience in applying the rules of safety. Their willingness to accept such a responsibility and the splendid cooperation of the parents and teachers have made the safety patrol work in our school very successful.

Bruce Gurtner

On September 5, 1951, thirty-eight pupils enrolled in the sixth grade. Since that time we had several changes. On October 2, Neal Hodge enrolled from Flint, Michigan.

On December twenty-second Violet Smith withdrew as the family was moving south of Garrett. On January 19 Earnest Young moved to Auburn and January 23 Linda Wagner returned to Fort Wayne to enter school there. Albert Wright enrolled on January 29 from Lansing, Michigan. On March 20 Josette Aker moved to Coldwater, Michigan, as the family had bought a farm near that city, so that we now have 36 pupils in the sixth grade.

Two of our most important subjects this year has been arithmetic and geography. Our work in arithmetic has been learning to use fractions and decimals in multiplication, addition, subtraction and division. We also have much practice in written problems, so as to gain experience in everyday use of numbers.

In geography we have studied the countries of Europe, Asia, Africa, Australia, and the islands of the Pacific Ocean. In these countries we have been interested in the climate and people and why they live, work, and act as they do.

Our fifth grade started this year with an enrollment of nineteen boys and sixteen girls. On December 22, Marlene Christlieb moved to Orland. Buddy Aker left us in March as his parents bought a farm near Coldwater, Michigan.

During the year we have had a few parties. At Halloween we enjoyed a program in the gymnasium, sponsored by the Lions Club. Terry Oster won a prize as a "Caveman."

Sylvia Henderson, Tommy Malle, Sherrill Palmer, Julia Pontius, Lorna Miser, Roberta Steininger, Marcia Kogin and Richard Korff took part in the Christmas Pageant, depicting the events of the nativity scene. At Christmas we also had an exchange of gifts in our room. Valentine Day was observed with "eats" and exchange of Valentines.

Our boys have been quite active in basketball. The attendance has been very good this year.

An effort has been made to develop the vocabulary of each student. New picture dictionaries have been purchased and used with satisfying results. Music appreciation has been taught by use of the record player. Great interest has been shown in this. We feel that this extra work has been worthwhile.

Second Grade

Essa Reinhart

The second grade began the year of 1950-1951 with an enrollment of 34 pupils.

During the year six new students entered: Theda Snyder, Barbara Kennedy, Betty Hartman, Robert Charleston, Roy Smith and Ileen Vian. Three students withdrew to enter school elsewhere. David Rathburn, David Littleton, and Theda Snyder.

We had several social events during the year. First came our Halloween Party sponsored by the Lions' Club and other citizens of our town. This event proved a splendid success. Then came our Christmas party with gift exchange and refreshments. Several members of the second grade took part in the Christmas pageant given in the school gymnasium.

Next came our valentine party. Karl Keiper presented us with a very pretty Valentine box. The time was spent distributing Valentines and eating refreshments.

February 16 was Martha Long's birthday, and she was pleasantly surprised when her mother visited us and served delicious refreshments.

We have aimed to stress reading this year. Many new books have been added to our library corner and many books have proven a great source of interest also.

Several parents have visited us during the year. Many have expressed their interest in the school work and activities.

Front Row: Nancy Lockwood, Cheryl Pontius, Michael Starkey, Vickey Kaehr, Carol Till, Kenneth Eastridge, Betty Hartman, Kenneth Buss, Barbara Kennedy.

Second Row: Ronald Lang, Karl Keiper, Jean Seibert, Donald Steininger, Ted Bachtel, David Geeting, Diane May, Sharon Diehl, Charlene Rich, teacher, Mrs. Reinhart.

Third Row: Keith Eberly, Dickey Deitrich, Theda Snyder, Robert Charleston, Ann Pasmann, Herman Gingrich, Marco Reqenas, Michael Eberly, Linda Muzzillo.

Fourth Row: George Noirot, Clarence Basinger, Martha Long, Terry Hartman, Skippy Haislip, Jacque Stroh, Marion Shultz, Rosemary Stuller.

First Grade

Helen Duncan

The first grade opened the school year with 41 children enrolled. During the school year several children moved to other schools. They were Thomas Christlieb, Karen Sue Helf, Ann Ladd and Susan Juilleratt.

We also received one new pupil, Marsha Hodges.

We enjoyed the usual holiday parties at Christmas, Valentine's Day and Halloween. We were also pleasantly surprised with a birthday party given by Mrs. George Speer for Philip. The children enjoyed this party very much.

Each year our class plans a preschool party for the children who will enter the following year. This also is a pleasant occasion.

"School Night" was a successful evening in our room. Many parents visited our room, talked over the program and discussed problems of interest. After the group meeting several parents stayed for personal talks.

Good co-operation was shown through the school year by parents and friends which made a very happy and successful school term.

Second row: Gloria Baysinger, Donald Gettys, Olen Dickerhoof, Karen Zerkle, Philip Speer, Mary Mayne, Mary Malle, Jimmy Ashleman, Garold Miller.

Third row: Robert Marks, Floyd Barrand, Carson Neible, Ronald Miller, LaMar Aker, Gary McKean, Tommy Christlieb, Kent Alwood, Billy Schlosser, Roma Wells, Marsha Hodges, Mrs. Duncan.

Top row: Marilee Crooks, Margaret Hill, Fonda Sheehan, Ronald Scindle, Barbara Hanes, Judith Hines, Karen Myers, Bobby Ish, Dickie Dunn.

Calendar

SEPTEMBER

5—School days are here again. Back to the old routine. We have several new teachers this year. Ummmmm.
6—First baseball game of the season was with Kendallville. They won! Too bad boys, better luck next time.
7—The new Freshman look lost, but time will tell.
11—Each class in the High School elected its officers for the year.
12—Band marched in the opening parade at the fair. Baseball game with Ashley, they won 5-4.
13—The chorus re-organized today. There were several new members.
14—Juniors order class rings. Played Albion, we won 6-5. First victory of the season. Congratulations boys.
15—Good news! NO SCHOOL!! Everybody is going to the fair.
16—Several bands from the tri-states area participated in the marching contest, BUT, the WATERLOO BAND placed F-I-R-S-T in class A.
19—Just school. . . . .
20—The entire student body was entertained in a special assembly given by Kenneth Wheeler of Boston, Massachusetts—a talented radio and television actor. He described the techniques of approaching a microphone and he also told us of the possibilities of television. Several of the students were asked to take part in a demonstration skit.
21—Mr. Bowers took some snapshots for the annual.
22—Another victory for Waterloo! We beat Rome City 9-3.
23—Senior paper drive, every little scrap brings us closer to Washington.
25—The school received the new Drivers Training Car. It is a Chevrolet. Be careful driving class!!!
26—After two consecutive victories our team was defeated by Angola, the score was 9-6. Tough luck boys.
27—The Seniors were shown several samples of invitations, after looking all of them over we decided on the one we wanted.
28—Band inspection! Did everyone wear his black shoes? ? ? ? ?
29—The seventh game of the season was played with Kendallville. They won 8-6.

OCTOBER

2—Finished installing gas in the Laboratory. Be careful Chemistry Class, don't blow the place up.
3—First Basketball practice. The Speech Class started to work on the play "The Little Red School House." The lower grades started selling tickets for a Puppy Raffle sponsored by the P. T. A.
4—Why are you limping boys? ? Could it be stiff basketball practice ? ? ? ? ?
5—Fire Bell!!! Could the building be on fire? ? ? ? No such luck. Just our first fire drill. We cleared the building in 1 minute, 30 seconds. Pretty good huh? ? ? A representative from the Robert's Studio, Fort Wayne, displayed a number of pictures and frames for the Seniors.
6—Seniors elected Annual Staff. Dale Ackerman, a member of the Sophomore class, was taken to the St. Joseph Hospital with a mild case of polio. Another fire drill, one entrance was blocked. Where to now, shall we try the windows?
9—Mrs. Voss issued robes to the new members of the Chorus. Band practice again. But this time at noon. Will contest ever come? ? ? ?
10—The first meeting of the Annual Staff. Y-Teens and Hi-Y were re-organized.

leaders are Jannis Becker and Delbert Zerkle. One of our classmates Virginia Bowers, was taken to the hospital. She will return home within a few days.

13—More marching practice. . . . .

14—We won first in our division at the state marching contest. Hope to do better next year. Warsaw won sweep-stakes. . . .

16—Everyone is glad that contest is over. Now we can sit down for a while.

17—Seniors received name cards.

18—? ? ? ? ?

19—The Lions Club and Band Parents sponsored a home talent play called "It's a Date."

20—The Sophomores are making plans for a class party.

23—Senior class play tryouts were held in the Junior Home Room 1st period. Good luck kids. . . . .

25—Mrs. Voss chose the play cast. Ohhhhh you lucky people.

26-27—Hurray! School's out. For once the teachers have to go to school. Did anyone skip any session? ? ? ? ?

30—Back to school after a long week-end. Everyone looks tired.

31—Halloween is here. If everyone is good there will be no school tomorrow. So, please don't soap any windows. . . . .

NOVEMBER

1—WELL, everyone behaved themselves so NO SCHOOL TODAY!!!

2—Senior pictures were taken today. Everyone smile at the little birdie.

3—Oh no! It's snowing, get out your red flannels kids!!! First basketball game of the season. It was with St. Joe. We won, 44-41. Congratulations boys that's a good start.

8—Seniors got their proofs, now we know what we really look like! Teachers had a business meeting so we all got out of school an hour early.

9—The Juniors received their class rings today, they think they're pretty nice. Of course they would!!!

10—Underclassmen got their pictures taken. Now the photographer has a large repair bill!! Second basketball game of the season, Angola won 56-45. We were entertained in a special assembly today, by the Hallelujah Quartet. After several group numbers we were honored by a piano solo, a bass solo, and one of the members of this quartet recited several humorous poems. This assembly was enjoyed by all.

13—What happened to the Freshman Latin Class today? ? Could it be that they were in a hurry this morning? ? Or was it Latin Club initiation? ? ?

15—Last minute play practice. Basketball game with Spencerville. They won 60-55.

16—Senior class gave their play. It was a big success.

22—Yea!! Another victory for the Wildcats. They defeated Avilla 55-41.
